INTEREST.

An hour earlier, at three o'clock, the M. E. Church, South, was the scene of another happy affair of like nature. There occurred the nuptials of Marion P. Hill of Dayton, and Miss Adele Pearl Sutton.

Interest was added to the occasion by it being the first wedding that has occurred in the new church.

A Word to Republicans.

The hope of the party lies in the expansion of a sturdy Republican press. The Republican who reads or adheres to it has no power to buy or sell, or to receive the reward of one of his own party newspapers to further the Republican cause.

Unanimously subscribed to by the National Republican League.

J. S. CLARKSON, President.

A. B. HUMPHREY, Secretary.

"When I picked up the pen to indite my Tariff message," says the Hon. GROVER CLEVELAND, "I had but one man in my mind from the time I FARMER'S INTEREST wrote the first word EST IN PROTECTION: until I signed my name, and that was the American farmer, but he did not understand me."

It will be noticed that in this sentence Mr. CLEVELAND attributes to the farmer not only inability to understand the ex-President's ponderous phrases and exploded fallacies, for which the farmer may surely be excused, but absolute ignorance of one of the vital questions which affect his own welfare. When it is remembered that Mr. CLEVELAND himself confessed shortly before his nomination that he "didn't know a thing about the Tariff," and that when he did write his message he wrote it at the dictation of Southern politicians of the ROGER Q. MILLS type, this assertion appears a little less impudent. The advocate of a consistent Protection Tariff, which shall protect alike the interests of all classes, the farmer included, is well content to leave his system to the practical examination of the farmer himself, nor does he think that those economists or political theorists are better able to judge of the feasibility of such system than the very man for whose benefit more than anything else it has been adopted. The farmer needs no diagram nor does he require extended dissertations from the Hon. GROVER CLEVELAND to enable him, for instance, to understand the meaning of figures like these:

Dutiable Imports 1851 that Came into Consumption with the Products of American Farmers

Grain	$2,454,223
Breadstuffs	4,406,449
Fruit	1,079,079
Fruits, other than tropic	3,273,964
Eggs	533,497
Hay	451,023
Hemp	1,079,079
Meat and dairy product	1,764,243
Rice	3,980,939
Seeds	865,409
Linen tobacco	5,607,182
Vegetables	1,259,406
Wools	18,798,406
Total	$32,889,966

One-seventh of the dutiable imports last year—$32,889,966—came directly into competition with the products of those farmers whom the Free-trade-ex-President thinks so ignorant. If our agricultural producers would withdraw part of their land from the production of wheat, of which they have raised already far too much, and devote it to the cultivation of some of the products enumerated in the above table, a market for which is assured them by the Protection given to farm products in the McKinley bill, enduring prosperity would come to the American farming population. The farmer who is probably the most intelligent element of all our industrial classes, understands perfectly his own needs and sees them, he understands, too, that his interest in Protection is greater than that of any other producer. He understands that the Tariff not only places duties on competing farm products, and thus protects him directly, but also that every mill, every factory, every workshop, established in this country by that Tariff is so much indirect Protection to him through the market it creates for his products. When the American farmer, tired of that system which has made him prosperous in the past, desires to destroy his home market, and place himself at the mercy of the foreigner, he will call in the Hon. GROVER CLEVELAND to help him. Till that time he will rest in placid enjoyment of the good that he hath, despite the ignorance attributed to him by the Free-trade demagogue.

ISAAC P. GRAY of Indiana "accepts the situation." That was all the Convention offered him.

The idea of carrying the state of DOUGLASS, LINCOLN and GRANT for CLEVELAND is an iridescent dream of idiotic Democracy. The suggestion is doubtless pleasing to the Democratic mind, but is an insult to the commonwealth of Illinois.

The Republican party is said in effect to the Democratic Free-trade voter, you must pay a license to enter the United States. There is scarcely a village or city in the United States that does not protect its home interests against the wandering peddler on the same principle.

A DEMOCRATIC ex-member of Congress, now in Washington, says the Southern members concede to the Farmers' Alliance and Third party the states of Alabama, Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Tennessee. Now, these fellows are altogether smaller than we thought; why don't they claim the whole shooting-match, with a slice of the Sandwich Islands thrown in.

Coming Kentucky Fair.

A LONG SESSION.

Congress May Remain in Session Until the Election.

Hopes of Adjournment by the Middle of July Blasted.

The House Throws Down the Gauntlet to the Senate and the Elect Go Forth
—It is presumed that the Senate will accept the challenge. —

WASHINGTON, June 30.—A matter of great significance happened in the congressional halls Wednesday. The house has thrown down the gauntlet to the senate, and the election of governor of Michigan, who is to remain in the capital summer. The house insists that the senate shall rescind its amendments making increases in the important appropriations for the ocean mail bill, and that if the senate refuses to yield as suggested, the democratic house will not permit the important money bills to pass.

The second session was given Wednesday by the committee of the ocean mail bill, which represented the best compromise that could be arrived at by the committee on the part of the two houses.

Anticipating similar action by the house upon other appropriation bills, the committee of the ocean mail bill voted to refer from committee to affect its declared purpose to obstruct the passage of certain important amendments brought forward by the republicans—notably that to carry into effect the ocean mail subside act; but to allow the house to open the bills, and to vote upon the full understanding that the house will make the fight to throw them out.

It is assumed that the senate will accept the challenge given by the house, and if that is the case will continue on the floor all night, and the present session of congress will extend well upon election day. Wednesday the house refused to accept the Indian appropriation bill as proposed by conference, making, as stated, the second committee of the whole. The house has repudiated. Upon the same principle there is a determination to stand fast, and the president will encourage them to do so.

The Balloon Burst.

LONDON, June 30.—A terrible accident occurred at the Crystal Palace here yesterday afternoon. A gas balloon, which carries passengers up as far as the rope attached to it will allow, Wednesday afternoon it ascended with four occupants, and after reaching a height of hundred feet, it burst. Captain E. B. Knott, who was in command, was instantly killed. The other three passengers were terribly injured, and it is not believed that they will live.

COMMENCED.

Opening of the National Prohibition Convention.

Ex-Gov. St John, of Kansas, Made Temporary Chairman.

Col. Eli F. Ritter, of Indiana, Elected Permanent Chairman—The Fusionists Receive a Black Eye—Morning Afternoon, Evening Sessions.

CINCINNATI, June 23.—A banner bearing the word "Welcome" in large black letters hangs over the entrance to the hall where the prohibition convention meets. Around the walls, festooned with flags are the portraits of Lincoln, Grant, Hayes, Garfield, Grant, Washington, Lincoln, Gen. Fitch, Frances Willard, St. John, Newell Green, Gove, Smyth, John, and others.

The women delegates amongst the men is a novel sight in a political convention—giving it more of a social character.

The opening ovation was "My Country, 'Tis the Band" and the organ joined in with "God Save the Queen."

Then Chairman Pickle came on with Treasurer Hastings, bearing a bundle of papers. One was called, "The Report of the Executive after the 18th and First Elections of Hodson College," etc., made the opening prayer, and at many of his fervent requests for destruction of the liquor traffic, the audience responded with marks of "Praise God," making a political convention seem strange.

The State Leagues entreated proceedings with prohibitory petitions until the music was given a temporary olive branch. The return of the "Old Guard" of the fusionists to the audience mighty and an encore was given, while some delegate yelled out "That's our music."

There were few notables on the stage when the gavel fell—in fact, there is greater respect of the audience than of the speakers at this convention than has ever been known.

There were loud cheers when Rev. C. W. Lookout came forward to make the address of welcome.

Among other speakers Rev. Lookout said:

"A Cincinnati greeting never lacks the grace of hospitality. All that the representatives of this city have done to you will be confirmed and more than fulfilled during your stay with us. You will find particular pleasure in the visits to the many unrivaled banquets, and a press more zealous than you have ever known in any convention to report your doings and in your addresses to this body. One of our best citizens, regardless of politics, I give you welcome. On behalf of the prohibitionites of Cincinnati, I give you welcome."

On behalf of the convention Chairman Dickie thanked Brother Lookout for his kind committee and gave the opportunity to make a short party speech. He then presented the list of delegates. "Do you want it read?"

"Not now, not yet," said Dickie.

"I should hope not," said Dickie.

Then, with words of praise, he presented St. John, who, in his speech, made an announcement which developed the fact that nearly every delegate had a white handkerchief and a good pair of jugs.

TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN ST. JOHN.

St. John and his management were to the front, and again the handkerchiefs and jugs were busy.

"What's the matter with St. John?" was the cry that greeted him, and the answer.

"He's all right," said Dickie.

Ex-Gov. St. John, the temporary chairman, delivered the following address:

Members of the convention: I return my thanks to the chairman for calling this meeting to the distinguished honor of helping to present the distinguished character of this magnificent political organization. We are here to protest against the liquor traffic, to denounce its effects on society, moral force, and brain power, that ever concerned on American soil. [Applause.]

The result of the vote was then announced, being 800 yeas and 721 nays. The majority reported on credentials, reported 62 delegates present, with all states represented except Wisconsin and North Carolina.

J. W. Tully of Lewis county was here yesterday.

All who wish to renew their subscription and those who have not subscribed will do well and proper if they will call on C. C. Degnan and get a receipt for the best county daily paper, only $3 per year, or THE DAILY LEDGER and THE NEW YORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE for $3.25.

Hurrah for Harrison and Reid. Springdale will take first honors, thank you. A nice liberty pole was raised at this place on Wednesday and at precisely 10 o'clock a.m. a beautiful flag was flung to the breeze. This is the identical flag which was made in 1861 by the late Mrs. Jack Sweet. We have seen the flag of Julius C. Degnan, assisted by Miss Laura E. Degnan, now the wife of Lafayette Grimes of Brown county, O., and under the folds of which the patriotic citizens of this vicinity stood shoulder to shoulder when it was dangerous to talk too loud for Lincoln and very unpopular to be classed as a Republican. Long may the wave, although it lacks several stars that the star banners of 1861 are entitled to sport.

DOVER.

Sam Perrine was in town Tuesday.

Mrs. Mollie G. Tweed of Ripley, O., was visiting her mother Tuesday.

Frazee & Thomas started their mill yesterday in their new quarters, and are now prepared to do good work.

Miss Clinte and Master Reed Curtis of Jersey City Heights, N. J., are the pleasant guests of grandpa and grandma Owens.

Pickett Barbour, colored, was arraigned before Judge Earshaw yesterday for carrying concealed weapons and in default of bail was sent to jail at Mayville.

Professor Ellsworth Swift of Mayville made an unsuccessful attempt to organize a branch of The Citizens National Building and Loan Association of Louisville here this week.

Professor Thomas Politit of Orangeburg has been employed as Principal of the school by the School Trustees, Miss Little Evans, Intermediate, and Miss Politi, a daughter of the Principal, for the Primary room.

Bon Moore was not quite full enough to be "too full for utterance," consequently he concluded he would cover with Sam Newell, and she objected and displayed a 28-cent bill. When we saw it, Bon's physiognomy and we declared it looked curious. At this juncture in the proceedings, Sam put in an appearance, and Bon proceeded forthwith to show his fiscal ability, but did not succeed in knocking his man out before friends interfered.
